Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), a digital camera comprising a memory receptor operable to receive a memory which is separable from said digital camera; a display unit operable to display an image of the picture information stored in the memory; a key adapted to be manipulated by a user of said digital camera and operable to rotate an angle of the image displayed on the display unit in response to user manipulation; and a control information processor operable to obtain the angle of rotation and, according to the obtained angle of rotation, signal to the memory how the image of the picture information stored in the memory and displayed on said display unit is to be rotated as claimed in claim 65. Similar features are claimed in claims 70 and 74. Therefore, claims 70 and 74 are allowable over the prior art of record for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
